ADVOCACY

Working for you in Montpelier

Membership in the Vermont Chamber includes access to our government affairs team working on taxes, health care, energy and economic development. Consider this team an extension of your staff and use them as expert liaisons to any level of government. Perhaps your tax bill is confusing, your workers' compensation rates increased or the liquor laws are too complicated. Maybe you have an idea to grow the economy or make government better. Review our Issue Center at VTChamber.com and contact us at govaffairs@VTChamber.com.

Membership also includes:

- Direct access to our 4-person lobbying team;
- Weekly legislative updates to keep you informed about issues that impact your business;
- Opportunities to make your voice heard through petitions, surveys, roundtable discussions and even testifying before the Legislature;
- Introductions to lawmakers, government leaders and regulators;
- Confidential verification for compliance with Vermont laws.

STRATEGIC NETWORKING

Events Focused on Industry Sector

Each year the Vermont Chamber hosts four signature events where members can connect with peers, share their knowledge, and promote their businesses. The Economic Conference in January provides a state, national and global economic outlook for businesses. May hosts the Six Pillar Conference focusing on six key components to business success. In the fall, our Manufacturing Summit and Citizen of the Year Award Dinner wrap up unbeatable strategic networking.

MARKETING

Reaching Business Leaders and Visitors

Whether you want to reach business leaders or visitors, membership provides access to our powerful marketing programs. Our websites provide a wealth of resources on advocacy issues, legislation, economic studies and other materials that inform and educate. With excellent SEO, strong analytics and open rates, our outreach tools will get your business noticed. As Vermont's official marketing partner, we produce 300,000 Guides and manage the statewide Stay & Play Directory on VermontVacation.com reaching thousands of visitors every day. These useful wayfinding tools are backed by $2 million in marketing as part of the Vermont Department of Tourism's campaigns. There is no better resource to attract tourists to hotels, restaurants, attractions and retail stores. As a member, you have access to:

- Tourism advertising in digital and print at significant savings;
- Business listings on VTChamber.com and additional online advertising;
- Advertising in our popular newsletters – Commerce Connections and State to Main; and
- Sponsorship of our four Signature Events.

RESOURCES

A Clearinghouse of Information

The Vermont Chamber provides members with the resources and tools to help them grow their businesses. We host legislative forums, an annual legislative reception, and an economic conference to inform members of the legislative and economic issues facing Vermont businesses. We provide members with access to training and recruitment education programs, online seminars, and interactive workshops.
