

CHRONOLOGICALLY LISTED

1 SOUTHERN VT GARLIC & HERB FESTIVAL

Bennington, September 2-3
www.lovegarlic.com • 802-447-3311

Over 200 vendors feature “garlic-inspired” booths; food vendors incorporate garlic into their menus. Highlights include live music throughout the festival and our Beer and Wine Garden. Enjoy demonstrations on planting, growing, braiding, etc. The event promises something for everyone.

2 VT GOLDEN HONEY FESTIVAL

Proctorsville, September 9
www.goldenstageinn.com • 802-226-7744

Every year, over 25 vendors gather on the lawn of Golden Stage Inn and offer their products which in some way are connected to the honeybee (Vermont’s state insect, of course!). From wood-fired Honey Apple Pizza to greeting cards, from skin care products to honey gin, this festival has something for everyone. Free admission.

3 CHESTER FALL CRAFT FESTIVAL ON THE GREEN

Chester, September 16-17 • 802-875-2444
www.chesterfallfestival.org

Showcasing over 60 New England artists. Midday music by Vermont musicians. Variety of food offerings, children’s tent, balloon artist, and Beer Garden. Mark the beginning of fall in one of the “most beautiful villages in New England.”

4 VERMONT FOREST FESTIVAL

Woodstock, September 23-24
www.vermontwoodfestival.org
 802-457-2355

Meet Vermont wood artisans, watch modern and traditional wood demonstrations by professional woodworkers. Meet the animals as you learn about Vermont farms and forests. Food and live music. Wagon rides, wood-crafting, forest tours, horse logging, demonstrations and more.

5 19TH CENTURY APPLE & CHEESE HARVEST FESTIVAL

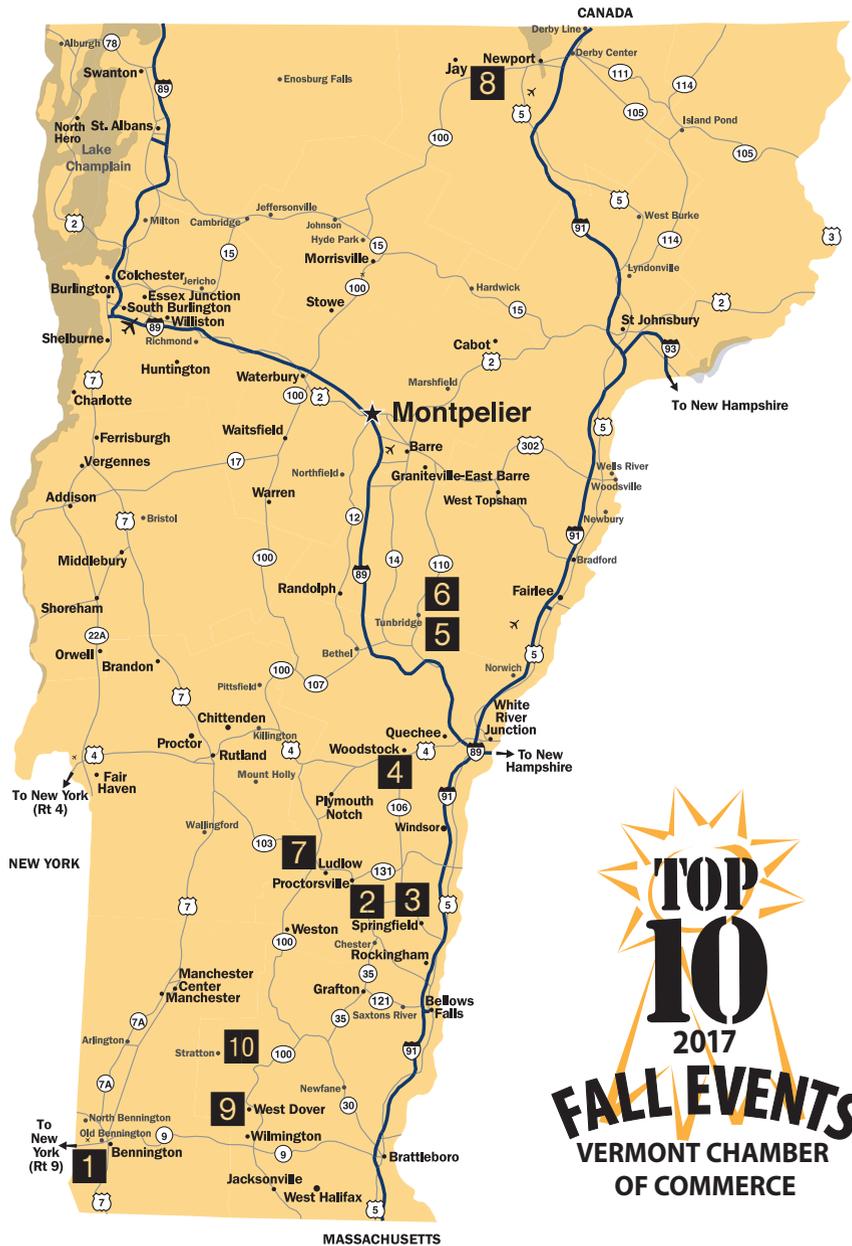

Strafford, September 24 • 802-765-4288
www.morrillhomestead.org

Celebrate Johnny Appleseed’s birthday at the Justin Morrill State Historic Site! Meet live farm animals, make cider in an antique press and play period games. Taste heirloom apples, artisan Vermont cheese, Vermont ice cream and homemade apple pie. Exhibits, icehouse, and pond. Admission includes lunch!

6 VT SHEEP & WOOL FESTIVAL

Tunbridge, September 30-October 1
www.vtsheepandwoolfest.org
 802-685-3267

Celebrating natural fiber with over 70 vendors offering fleece and yarn, fiber animals, handspinning and fiber crafting equipment, handcrafted wool items and local meat and cheese. Includes contests, classes and demonstrations, shepherd workshops, herding and shearing demos, fleece sale and more.

7 FALL INTO WINTER

Ludlow, October 7
www.okemo.com/activities/calendar/fallintowinter/ • 802-228-1600

It’s time to celebrate the transition of the seasons with live music, hayrides, pumpkin painting, a pie eating contest, apple cider and hot chocolate. Enjoy a beverage from the beer garden and great food selections in the Jackson Gore Courtyard.

8 BEAN & BREW FESTIVAL

Jay, October 7
www.jaypeakresort.com • 802-988-2611

Featuring some of the finest locally-roasted coffees coupled with New England’s finest beers. Enjoy the coffee and beer sampling while listening to live music and playing lawn games. Kid and family friendly and runs from noon to 6 pm.

9 MOUNT SNOW OKTOBERFEST

West Dover, October 7-8
www.mountsnow.com • 800-245-SNOW

Oom-pah music provides a fitting backdrop to our famous schnitzel toss, keg toss, yodeling and stein-holding contests, and of course, tons of beer and German fare! Breathtaking Vermont foliage best seen from a scenic chair-lift ride. Pumpkin painting, a corn maze, and bouncy house keep the kids entertained, and the Annual Harvest Arts and Crafts.

10 COLUMBUS DAY WEEKEND HARVEST FEST

Stratton, October 7-9
www.stratton.com • 800-STRATTON

A fall spectacular featuring live music, hay rides, pumpkin painting and scenic lift rides to view Vermont’s fall foliage. Taste over 100 of the region’s top craft beers and ciders at the annual Brew Fest, choose your favorite recipe at the Chili Cook-Off or challenge yourself in the North Face Race to the Summit.